

Delaware County 4-H Hall of Fame Award

The Delaware County 4-H Committee is looking for past and present adult 4-H volunteers for the Delaware County 4-H Hall of Fame. Nominees are those who have gone above and beyond in their position as a 4-H volunteer and have excelled in the one or more areas within the Delaware County 4-H program. The application should focus on the volunteer's entire 4-H experience as a volunteer and not just specific to one year.

GUIDELINES:

- The nominee should have significant service to Delaware County 4-H.
- The application is due to OSU Extension by 4:30 PM on October 21st and no late applications will be accepted.
- Volunteers cannot nominate themselves. Applications must be typed and all parts of the application must be complete to be accepted.
- This application must be completed by a 4-H Club Advisor, Species or Committee Members, Key Leaders, 4-H Parent, 4-H Member or 4-H Alumnus. Nominators are not limited to nominating someone from their own club or project area.
- Two letters of recommendation from a current 4-H member, former 4-H member, 4-H volunteer, and/or community member must be included with the application. Please consider including letters from different categories of members.
- Information from questions 1-5 may be used for publicity if the individual is selected.
